

BRIAN C. BOSMA, PARTNER

Mr. Bosma's practice is concentrated in the areas of complex business and municipal transactions, municipal finance and environmental matters. With an extensive background in engineering, business, law and government he chairs the Government Practice Group of Kroger Gardis & Regas, and serves as general or special counsel to dozens of municipalities and business entities throughout the State of Indiana. An engineering graduate of Purdue University, Mr. Bosma represents both public and private sector clients in real estate and construction projects, public sector joint ventures and utility and regulatory matters. He has served as lead counsel for more than fifty public and economic development projects ranging from small facilities to major public private utility projects and regularly appears before local utility boards and the Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission. He is nationally recognized bond counsel and an active member of the Indiana Municipal Lawyers Association and the National Association of Bond Lawyers.
