

JASON MIZZELL, ASSOCIATE

Jason focuses his practice in the areas of litigation, E-discovery, creditors' rights, secured transactions, and bankruptcy matters. He served as staff counsel for the Honorable James M. Carr, United States Bankruptcy Judge for the Southern District of Indiana from 2013-2017 before moving into private practice. His substantial background in electronic discovery has seen his practice shift from exclusively creditors' rights and bankruptcy issues to include litigation in a number of different practice areas including environmental law and sports and entertainment law.

He is active in leadership roles within the Indianapolis Bar Association and the Indiana State Bar Association and regularly gives educational presentations to other attorneys on bankruptcy matters.
