

KEVIN D. KOONS, PARTNER

Kevin Koons represents clients in a variety of industries and practice areas on litigated matters. Koons routinely handles employment litigation, business litigation and municipal government litigation. His municipal government cases have addressed issues involving land use decisions, public employment, and inter-governmental disputes. Koons is admitted to practice law in both Indiana and California.

His experience as an aide to a congressman and as a law clerk for a nonprofit organization enhance his experience and add dimension to his relationships with clients.

Outside the office, Kevin enjoys classical music, recreational basketball, coaching soccer and participating in church and family activities. He and his wife have four young children.
